

Do you want to act on climate, but find yourself unsure of what to do or how?

Join us...

The CJUU is a transdisciplinary, international collective of people who are working to transform Higher Education to advance climate justice and accelerate a just transition.

Our members come from all over the world – from Higher Education institutions, diverse and creative communities, civil society organisations, and beyond. You can join us here (it's free!):
